INTRODUCTION

Due to the interest and insistence of so many of the younger generation of the Coffin Family, we have been inspired to attain all possible data and put it into printed form.

It has indeed been a pleasure to follow up to the tiniest twig and branch on the family tree, and the many pleasant contacts we have made with relatives and friends will always be a pleasant memory.

It has been our aim to attain and record all available information in as nearly correct form as it was humanly possible to make it.

We are aware of the fact that there are omissions and possibly errors, as there surely would be in making any intensive research. In such cases said facts were unavailable or errors were unintentional.

We want to express our sincere thanks to each and every one who has so willingly helped to make publishing this record a dream come true.

We truly hope that the pleasure that has been ours in these years of preparation will be reflected in the lives of others, as not only generations now living but those of the untold future review these pages.

Lives of great men oft remind us
We too can make our lives sublime
And departing leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

THE ANDREW COFFING HOMESTEAD

After the death of Andrew Coffing and the 842 acres were divided out, this farm became the property of Uncle Dayton Coffing, then to William D. Coffing, then to Elwood Coffing and at the present time to Mr. and Mrs. Volney Furr.

A one acre tract that lay across the road had been set aside for a church but the plan was changed and it was built one fourth mile east and known as Crazy Corner and the burying ground is located there also.

During the settlement of this territory Andrew Coffing was heard to say, "If my land is as good as this I will be satisfied." He later learned that he was standing on his own land when he made that remark.

The Osborn Prairie Church was organized and built in 1823 and Grandmother Coffing became a member in 1839 according to the church record. In 1831 the "Moral Associated Citizens" was organized and the name of Andrew Coffing along with some of the Romines, Galloways and others were listed.

In this early day when the Osborn Prairie neighborhood was being settled we are told that quite a few people were unable to read or write.

Here is a happening told about Grandfather Coffing. A gentleman in Ohio had come land here in Fountain County for sale and had written to a Mr. Stucker offering to sell it to him for a certain sum of money. The letter was taken to Mr. Coffing for him to read it and write the reply that said Stucker would buy the land. After writing and handing it to Mr. Stucker to be delivered, Mr. Coffing, wanting the land for himself and knowing how slowly mail traveled, mounted his horse, rode to Ohio and purchased the land for himself.

To my knowledge no one has a picture of Andrew Coffing. He had one taken at Danville, Ill., but washed it away shortly afterward.

He died on September 3, 1853, and Abigail Coffing died on May 2, 1864.

They are buried in the Osborn Prairie Cemetery about three and one half miles north of Vandersburg, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Glover of Covington have the rocker in which Abigail Coffing sat when she passed away.

After Grandfather's death, Grandmother gave each of her children a $20.00 gold coin and Uncle Charlie was the only one to keep the coin until his death and if I am not mistaken, he saw more trying times than any other child of the family.

ABIGAIL (CRANE) COFFING

Andrew Coffing, the fifth child and oldest son of William and Kathryn (Schnorf) Coffing, was born in Warren County, Ohio, on January 14, 1823.

He and Abigail Crane, daughter of Joseph and Ruth (Miller) Crane were married in Warren County, Ohio, on July 16, 1826. She was born on August 1, 1810, and died on May 2, 1861.

They had two children, born in Fountain Co., Indiana. carried his ax to blow down a rough on Creek. Jonathan R. a cabin at the west edge of town. Mocker and later known as the J. R.

The cabin floor was of natural stone, one side of which was higher than the other. The floor may still be seen there.

These two families lived in the cabin until they could get one built.

Through fear of the Indians, a cabin on the place now owned by Ar. An apple seed or a sprout brought from Ohio was planted here and remembered by William B. Coffing, James A. Glover and several others.

Shortly after the erection of this cabin, a school was started by a chartered organization known as "The Coal Co." This organization favored a common school. The school was stored and later divided. Those who did not like this idea were chosen to work less. Andrew Crane and wife Huldah of Warren County, Ohio, the west 1/4 of the S. W. 1/4 of Section 14, Township 23 N. E. 6 W. in Fountain County, Indiana, containing 20 acres for $100.00 and paid. This land was later owned by Abner N. Coffing, a son. Deed Book 12, page 107.

On this land they erected a cabin where Huldah Ann, Catherine A., Calvin C., William Ira, Ezra Dayton, Smith F., Hannah Jane and Abner N. were born.

On March 25, 1837, Grandfather purchased from Hannah Orr for the sum $1200.00 the 160 acres farm described in the N. W. Section 14, Township 20 and R. 8. Deed Book 6. In this deed it was specifically set out that a small plot of ground where Mr. Orr and three or four other people had been buried was to be used in the said land and that the purchaser was bound to keep said plot well fenced and not to be used as his own land. The barn that stands there now covers this burying plot.

In 1843 a new house was built just in front of the old one from brick made and cured right close by on the farm by a Mr. Glover.

Here at this place the other children were born: John Andrew, Mary Elizabeth, Lydia E., Emily A., Charles Bloomer and Simon A., sixteen children in all.

Catherine Amanda Coffing was born February 27, 1831, the fourth child and second daughter of Andrew and Abigail (Crane) Coffing on a farm on the south side of the road a short distance west of the Progressive Friends' Church in Van Buren Township, Fountain, County.

Her family was one of the pioneer families as a History of Fountain County shows that the first settlers of this neighborhood came only eight or ten years before her birth.

On August 21, 1856, she was married to George Hunter Galloway, a son of John and Ann (Lemon) Galloway, another pioneer family just across the township line in Shawnee Township. To them were born eight children, Melissa Jane, John Arden, Dora Ann, Robert Gilmore, Freeman Morton, George Edward, Ruth Ozeta, and Wendell Alesta. Melissa Jane died when about three years old but the rest grew to adulthood.

One of the proofs that she was a good Christian woman was, as the custom was in that day to be called frequently in the neighborhood to assist in the bringing of the new babies into this world. She was ready to go day or night on this chore or to help in case of sickness.

Her home was one of the places that the local school teachers roomed and boarded, one of whom, Patience McCarty, later married a son, Robert Gilmore.

It was about 1860 that the family built the present residence, owned by a grandson, Homer H. Galloway, to replace a building of hand-made brick, which in turn had replaced a log house.

George Hunter Galloway died April 7, 1877, when the youngest son, Wendell, was not yet two years old. "Aunt Kate" lived alone until May 16, 1893, to guide and manage the family. Both are buried in Hopkins' Cemetery in Shawnee Township.

William Ira Coffing, son of Andrew and Abigail (Crane) Coffing was born in Van Buren Township, Fountain County, near Stone Bluff on April 9, 1834.

He attended the common schools of Van Buren and Shawnee Townships. On January 8, 1856, he was married to Miss Martha Ireland, the daughter of William and Rebecca (Lee) Ireland and to them were born five sons and four daughters.

On August 13, while the shrill notes of fife and rattle of drum were calling the young men of the North to go forth to battle in defense of the Union he enlisted at Attica for three years.

He was mustered in on September 4, 1862, as a corporal under Capt. Dicks in Co. C of Indiana 36th Regiment. He was a model soldier and was held in high esteem by his comrades.

Wounded in the battle of Stone River by a bullet in the hip he was incapacitated for future service and sent home receiving his honorable discharge on September 1, 1863. He was kind, tender and loving to his partner of joys and sorrows, careful and conscientious in training of their children who were among our best and cherished citizens.

He passed away March 30, 1895, at his home six miles northeast of Covington.

She died on December 14, 1903.

They are buried in the Osborn Prairie Cemetery.

Ezra Dayton Coffing, son of Andrew and Abigail Crane Coffing, was born October 17, 1835, at the old Coffing home-stead, east of Covington in Fountain County, Indiana, where sixty-two years of his life were spent.

He was married on March 4, 1858, to Mary Catherine Marquess, daughter of James and Margaret Ann (Berry) Marquess, and shortly thereafter bought the home place, where they reared their family of three daughters and five sons.

In his early life he was known as a very successful farmer, a hard working and fun-loving man. He often amused the children by relating to them of whistling in school, dancing all night and leading singing school in his bare feet. He received the usual schooling of the time, and under the same conditions, and much could be said of his interest in civic affairs.

His mother, Abigail Crane Coffing, was one of the promoters and became a member of the Osborne Prairie New-Light Christian Church in 1839, and the religious views of Dayton Coffing has often been repeated: In the winter of 1881 Rev. John T. Phillips (then pastor), and an evangelist, Rev. Orr, held a revival meeting in the church. On a Sunday they were entertained in the Coffing home. During the afternoon the conversation turned to religion and Mr. Coffing was asked why he had never united with the church, since he was a supporter of the church and an influential citizen. He replied—"When anyone can explain to me satisfactorily, that Christ is a divine being, I will then unite with the Church." Rev. Orr asked for one week to prepare his sermon, and on each following night announced that on the coming Sunday night he would preach on the "Divinity of Christ."

On that night the church was filled, and people were standing outside at the windows. When the call was made, twenty responded, five of whom were Dayton Coffing, his wife Mary and three of their sons. He was an ordained Deacon of the church and was on the building Committee when the present church was built.

In 1897 the old farm home was sold and they spent the remaining years in Stone Bluff until October 1906 when the beloved Mary was called home. From that time, until his death in September 1920 he made his home with his youngest son.

Dayton Coffing left a lasting impression on the lives of his children and grandchildren and a philosophy of life that could well be used by everyone—you may not be able to say anything nice about everyone you meet, but you CAN keep silent!

Smith F. Coffing, son of Andrew and Abigail (Crane) Coffing was born on February 9, 1837, at the old Coffing homestead located just west of the Progressive Friends Church. Here he grew to manhood where he received his common school education.

On May 8, 1859 he was united in marriage to Louisa Brown, daughter of William and Mary (Becker) Brown whose farm adjoined that of the Coffings. They went to house keeping in a log cabin on the Coffing farm, the same cabin that was the second home of grandfather and family, but soon after they bought a farm known as the Hopkins place and it was here that J. Mahlon, William B. and Ophelia were born.

They then sold the Hopkins farm and purchased the Thomas Osborn farm of 150 acres which was later known as the Simon Lynch farm. Here was born Leonia, Thomas M., Smith Allen and Carrie Louise.

Uncle Smith was one of the most respected citizens of Fountain County, generous hearted and always ready and willing to assist his fellowmen in every way. He and his wife united with the Osborn Prairie Christian Church in 1863 and were Charter members of the M. E. Church at Cherry Corner in 1876. In later years they were members of the Covington M. E. Church.

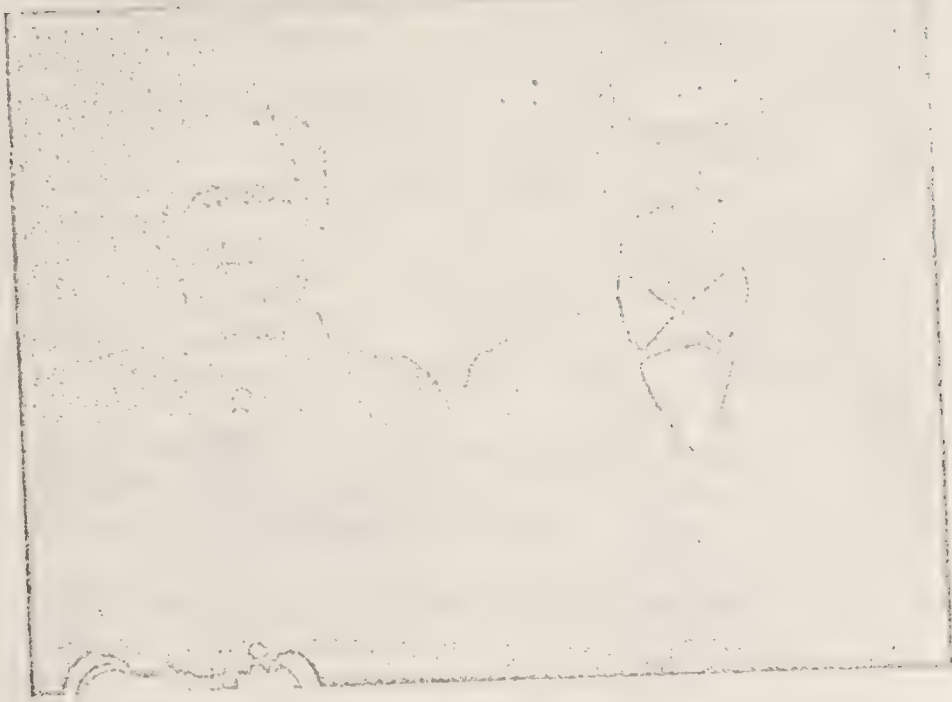

He passed away on August 26, 1909, and she on October 16, 1940. They were buried in Mt. Hope Cemetery, Covington, Ind.

Hannah Jane Green, daughter of Andrew and Abigail (Crane) Coffey, was born in Fountain County, Ind., at the old homestead on April 6, 1833. She received her education in the common schools available in this early day.

She and Samuel Kile Green were married on July 27, 1856, in Fountain County, Ind. He was born in Miami Co., Ohio, on Sept. 23, 1832, and moved with his parents to Fountain County, Ind., in his boyhood days.

They lived on the Hopkins place near Aylesworth for quite some time and in 1869 moved by covered wagon to Kansas state making their home in Labette Co. To them were born four sons and six daughters. Because of educational advantages offered by the University they moved to Baldwin, Kansas, in 1886. After the death of Uncle Sam, as he was so well known, Aunt Hannah made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Emma Power, living in Baldwin until 1919 when they moved to Lawrence, Kansas.

While visiting another daughter, Mrs. Hettie Orr, in Osawatomie, she took sick and spent her latter days there.

Throughout all their lives they were planning for the future good of their children, were highly respected, and were kind and loyal neighbors to any one who needed their services.

Both were Christians and had a living faith in God. Early in the last sickness of Mr. Green he said, "I am on my way to Glory." The last year especially seemed a beautiful time of more preparation for the home in heaven and his face glowed with faith. Mrs. Green's faith was shown in her last words, "I leave it all with God."

She passed away on July 14, 1925, and he on January 17, 1917.

They are both buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Baldwin, Kan., the town which was for so many years their home.

Abner N. Coffing, the tenth child of Andrew and Abigail (Crane) Coffing was born on November 30, 1839, in the old homestead that sat back off the Highway.

On March 5, 1865, he and Elizabeth A. Zeigler were married near Covington, Ind. They began to keep house in the same place of his birth and later built the home now owned by Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Newman where 14 children were born to them.

Some of this number died in infancy but most of them married and had families that are widely scattered over quite a wide area.

He passed away on April 13, 1913, and she on October 12th, 1889. They are buried in the Osborn Prairie Cemetery.

John A. Coffing, son of Andrew and Abigail (Crane) Coffing, was born March 12, 1842, and Matilda Brown, daughter of William and Mary (Becker) Brown was born and grew to manhood and womanhood in quaint country homes in the same community.

They attended school at the Woodland Schoolhouse, an old log building, located near the Ostorn Prairie Church. They were never enrolled in any other school. They walked to and from this school, a distance of several miles, wore copper toed boots, and faced many winter storms without a murmur.

They united with the Church in their community when quite young. They were married at the William and Mary Brown homestead on May 18, 1864, and went to housekeeping on the Todd farm in Troy Twp.

A few years after they were married they gave a plot of their farm land in Shawnee for the location of a new Methodist Church in the year of 1873 and when it was completed and dedicated it was given the name of Mount Pleasant. They were loyal workers and charter members in the church and did many things for the up building of the surrounding community in which they lived. When deceased they were members of the First Methodist Church in Attica, Indiana.

Married 53 years on January 18, 1913

Mary Elizabeth Coffing. The twelfth child of Andrew and Abigail (Crane) Coffing was born on March 21, 1843, in the old log house which was replaced by the brick house that still stands today on what is known as the Uncle Dayton Coffing farm, one fourth mile west of the Crazy Corner Church, and now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Volney Furr.

Here she grew to young womanhood and attended her first school in the old log schoolhouse located on the Jacob Brown land, West $\frac{1}{2}$ of Southwest Section 11, Township 20, Range 8 West. Now owned by Walter G. Galloway, a great-grandson of Andrew and Abigail Coffing. This schoolhouse was replaced by a frame building which was abandoned about 1853 when the Bear Creek and Cherry Corner Schools were built.

She finished her schooling at the Woodland School that stood just across the road from the Osborn Prairie Church. When she was a young lady, the Spiritualist Group were holding their meetings at the church close by and she was solicited to train to become one of their Mediums, but she united with the Osborn Prairie Christian Church.

On January 18, 1863, she and William M. Glover were married, culminating a courtship of seven years, many happy hours of which were spent together in the old singing school. The ceremony was read at ten o'clock on Sunday morning by Rev. Joel Thomas in the presence of twenty-five guests. As was their custom, they then drove to Osborn Prairie Church for morning services and returned home with forty friends to partake of a bounteous wedding dinner.

They began housekeeping on the Catherine Glover farm in a cabin that stood close to what is now the Luke Nebeker Crib. Shortly after, they sold the John S. Martin 80 acre tract and purchased our old home place described as West $\frac{1}{2}$ of Northwest Section 15, Township 20, Range 8, consisting of 80 acres from Abner J. Crane on March 13, 1866 for \$4000.00, paying \$2350.00 cash and assuming a \$1750.00 mortgage.

In the year 1871 they built a new house on this land largely from native timber. The black walnut finishing lumber was cut and cured there on their own land. Here we children grew up attending the Troy Township Schools and the Osborn Prairie Sunday School.

Mother was always ready to help the sick and afflicted of the neighborhood, and the nights were never too dark or stormy for her to mount a horse and go help those in need. She was a great lover of flowers and was very instrumental in the building of the mound in the Osborn Prairie Cemetery and she loved to keep blooming plants on it during the summer months. Mother and Father were lifelong members of the Osborn Prairie Church of which he was a deacon for forty years and she always prepared the sacrament.

One of the happiest occasions of their lives occurred in 1913, when they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in the Christian Church in Veedersburg. Members of the family and guests totaling 135 partook of the wedding dinner. G. W. Coffing of Indianapolis was the only one present at the anniversary who had attended the wedding, and he and Mrs. B. H. Coffing attended the couple as they renewed their marriage vows. Their entire married life had been spent within a few miles of their birthplace.

About 1904 they retired from the farm and took up residence in Veedersburg. In April of 1918 while visiting at the home of her daughter, Della Barkley, Mother was stricken with her last illness. Her sister Hannah Green, came from Kansas to be at her bedside and was a loving and devoted nurse. On June 6th, 1918 she quietly departed this life to be joined by Father on October 24, 1922. The Veedersburg News in recording their deaths paid this tribute. "They enshrined themselves in the affections of all who knew them and were always surrounded by admiring and loving friends. Their outstanding Christian characters will always be a beautiful memory to all who knew them."

Charles Bloomer Coffing, son of Andrew and Abigail (Crane) Coffing was born November 3, 1851, at the Coffing homestead near the Osborn Prairie Church and attended the Woodland School. Before he was married he was living alone in a cabin on the William I. Coffing farm and when the neighbors failed to see him out they began to investigate, finding him confined to his bed with a severe case of measles which almost cost him his life.

On August 29, 1876 he and Mary Watts were united in marriage. She was the daughter of Joel and Eliza (Hayden) Watts, and born on July 17, 1856.

They lived on their farm of 163 acres near Portland where all their children were born.

By the untimely death of the wife on February 4, 1889, he was left with the six children, the eldest but twelve years of age, dependent upon him for both a father's and mother's care. With an unerring love and energy he kept them together and reared them to manhood and womanhood.

He and the children have lived in several places. In Jasper County, Newton County near Pensacola, Veedersburg and at Layton Station, where with his son Evert, they operated a tile and brick factory for four or five years.

After Evert was married, they worked together and operated portable saw mills in Warren County and over a wide territory in Fountain County. They also operated a threshing outfit for thirty years.

The eldest daughter Grace May was a wonderful helper to rear the younger children. Shortly after his father's death his mother gave each of her children a $20.00 gold coin, and while he saw some very trying times, he was the only one to keep the treasured coin until his death. Weaver possesses this coin at this time.

He died December 30, 1933, and she on February 4, 1889. They are buried in the Osborn Prairie Cemetery.

Brazier Hunt Coffin, the only son of William Jr. and Margaret (Pernan) Coffin, was born in Warren County, Ohio, on October 10, 1840. He had two older sisters, Catherine and Cynthia.

His mother died when he was two years of age.

By 1849 the family were living in Montgomery County, Ohio. He learned the blacksmith in or near Crawfordville, he worked as a farm hand and took up farming on his own in Warren County soon after his marriage to Sarah Catherine Ireland, on August 10, 1861, at Osborn Prairie Church near Ucedsburg.

She was the daughter of William and Rebecca (Lee) Ireland. The other children were James, Mary and Martha. Her father learned the Alphabet from letters carved on a wooden paddle. He was a Methodist Episcopal preacher, a circuit rider serving without pay. He owned farm land in Warren County, a farm near Rob. Roy and one near Cherry Corner.

Uncle Brazier and Aunt Sarah had four children. Ida May, born Aug. 10, 1862, Ella Mary, born Jan. 9, 1865, Mattie Lee, born Sept. 6, 1871, and Guy born July 20, 1880. They moved to Ucedsburg in 1875, where he was associated with Marshall Nixon buying and shipping stock. In 1881 they went to Covington, while he was deputy sheriff under Perry Glensock. In 1886 he was elected sheriff. He was also Superintendent of the County farm. On Sept. 15, 1862, he enlisted in Company E, 26th Ind. Inf. and camp at Lafayette. When called to Indianapolis, he was sick and had sore eyes, so Col. Dick sent him back to wait for further orders and the orders never came.

After the death of Aunt Sarah on Sept. 16, 1914, he went to live with his daughter, Mrs. Mattie Boyd. He enjoyed spending the winters in Florida with another daughter, Mrs. Ida Booc and then to Michigan in summer time with his son Guy and wife Anne.

He died Nov. 18, 1932. They are buried in the Mount Hope cemetery at Covington, Indiana.

COFFIN GENEALOGY

These notes of family history brought down by word of mouth and from records assembled by James A. Coffin.

The Coffins after leaving Ireland, crossed the Atlantic Ocean on Nantucket Island and from there conducted a whale fishing business along the coast of North America.

After a time on this island they came in-land, where they met the first settlers. William Coffin married a daughter of the first settler, a woman named Mary. They were both born in Germany, supposed to be in 1779. When they first came to America settled in Warren, Ohio.

There they reared their family of ten children. Mary, Margaret, Andrew, John, Catherine, Elizabeth, Elsie, Isaac, and Mollie. The parents, Jacob and Mary, died in Warren, Ohio, on the 11th of January 1850 and 1851 respectively.

Jacob died in 1851.

Mary died in 1851.

His will is of 1850, Warren Co. Ohio. Probate No. 325 - C. P. Box 31 No. 14.
